Dear Dr. Afrasiabi,

It was a pleasure to meet you, too, and we have conveyed your message to the Secretary-General.

All the best,

Susanne

Your Excellency,

I write this letter to bring to your attention my oped-article in New York Times that calls for a meeting of US and Iranian presidents at the UN, suggesting a role by your excellency as interlocutor. In order to make this a reality, I suggest an immediate meeting whereby I and my colleague professor Entessar can discuss with you our vision of how to proceed, given the obstacles on both sides. Given the small window of time and the urgency of this matter, I strongly urge you to consider our suggestion at your earliest convenience.

For your information, I am also a former consultant on UN's Program on Dialogue Among Civilizations and have made several contributions to UN Chronicle, including an interview with former president Mohammad Khatami, as well as with former undersecretary for peacekeeping Mr. Guehenno, the head of Peacebuilding Commission, etc. I am the author of numerous books and articles, including UN Management Reform which has been on sale at UN Bookstore (links below).

Respectfully Submitted,

Kaveh L. Afrasiabi, Ph.D.

Dear Professor Afrasiabi,

Thank you for your e-mail below. In order to properly process it we would like to ask that you resubmit your letter in a formal format, addressed to the Secretary-General. Please indicate in the letter the preferred date and time for the requested meeting. This will allow us to log it and process appropriately.

Thank you and best regards,
